Nodi e Snodi

Until 16th December 2017

Tucci Russo Archivio e Chambres d'Art, based in Turin at 2 Via Bertolotti, aims to be a place of encounter and for specific projects, in dialogue with the main gallery in Torre Pellice.

Within this framework the artist Christiane Löhr, who has been collaborating with the gallery since 2013, conceived the exhibition Nodi e Snodi which consists of a grouping of sculptures and drawings.

The sculptures appear as architectures and geometric forms created with natural elements, horsehair and blades of grass which, in their intersecting, become the constituent and forming structures of the work. Removing these elements from natural processes, the artist crystallises their presence in the world, thus alienating them from the normal temporality of natural cycles.

The drawings lead to the expression of an extended thought which investigates the blank space of the paper, giving the latter a connotation not only physical but also mental.

Christiane Löhr (b. Wiesbaden) lives and works in Cologne and Prato.

Christiane Löhr has taken part in numerous exhibitions in museums and institutions in Italy and abroad, some of which we mention here: Kunsthau Baselland Muttentz/Basel, Museo Pino Pascali Polignano a Mare, (2016); Vangi Museum Shizuoka (2015); Stiftung Opelvillen Rüsselsheim, Blueproject Foundation Barcelona (2014); Villa e Collezione Panza Varese, Fundació Pilar i Joan Miró Palma de Mallorca (2010); CDAN Centro de Arte y Naturaleza, Huesca (2007); Fattoria di Celle, Gori Collection, Pistoia (2004); 49th Venice Biennale (2001).

Her works are currently on show at the Fondation Villa Datris, L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue and Museum Kunst der Westküste, Föhr.
