FRANCESCO GENNARI

QUANDO IO NON SONO IO

[WHEN I AM NOT ME]

Opening Sunday 13th May 2012 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Until 30th September 2012

"I want my body to disperse entropically in the earth and my soul to go and occupy a variable space in heaven; I want all this to happen with a stain of wild black cherry in my heart and I want only my shell to remain.

I want to be where there is neither time nor space, in the antechamber of the world, outside it, to observe it and think of the new order that will come.

I want to stand aside and let him be the one to act, I want insight to prevail over reason.

When I am no longer me, this will be possible."

Francesco Gennari

Art is to arouse.

The artist's reference is himself, his own ideas and his ability to make them materialise in the work. The beholder follows an opposite process, open minded, seeking the idea when faced with the work. In his solo show Francesco Gennari presents three creative expressions, different at aesthetic and temporal level but which converge in the being of Gennari artist.

Moment 1

NESSUN CONCETTO NESSUNA RAPPRESENTAZIONE NESSUN SIGNIFICATO, 1999

[NO CONCEPT NO REPRESENTATION NO MEANING]

"I want to be where there is neither time nor space, in the antechamber of the world, outside it, to observe it and think of the new order that will come."

It is the moment in which all is possible, every idea, every creative possibility may assume form from the availability of nothingness.

Moment 2

QUANDO IO NON SONO IO, 2012

[WHEN I AM NOT ME]

"I want to stand aside and let him be the one to act, I want insight to prevail over reason."

The artist and the drawing, the hand as simple tool of conjunction between pencil, paper and....

Moment 3

IL CORPO TORNA ALLA TERRA L'ANIMA TORNA AL CIELO (CON UNA MACCHIA DI AMARENA NEL CUORE), 2011

[THE BODY RETURNS TO EARTH, THE SOUL TO HEAVEN (WITH A STAIN OF AMARENA IN THE HEART)]

"I want my body to disperse entropically in the earth and my soul to go and occupy a variable space in heaven; I want all this to happen with a stain of wild black cherry in my heart and I want only my shell to remain."
